Poetry.

Nothing Like Leather.

In early days our fathers wore
Their home-made buckskin breeches,
Cut out by guess-work measurement,
With leather whangs for stitches,
And now their sons are called again
To rally 'neath the banner
Borne by these men of leather-craft,
The Cobbler and the Tanner.
The North and South, the East and West
Will work and sing together,
And march to glorious victory—
For nothing wears like leather!

We have some jobs on mongrel pelts,
And have the hands to do them;
Our Grant will neatly curry them,
And Wilson wax it to them!
The chopper up at Chappaqua
May go on with his planning:
We'll let him furnish all the bark,
But Grant will do the tanning!
The tan-skinned chaps will uppers make,
The though old hides the neither;
The bolting, sore-head crowd will do
For nothing but split leather!

The "later Franklin," statesman, sage,
Philosopher and farmer,
Retired in cool and rural shades,
As days grow long and warmer,
Can milk the gentle butternut,
That grazes round with bell on,
And pan out butter sweet, for Gratz
To spread his watermelon!
Or he seize his ready pen,
In stormy, rainy weather,
And tell the world how shoe-pegs grow,
Or modes of smelting leather!

To spoil so fine a husbandman,
Who, perched up in the city,
Writes quires of what he never knew,
It surely were a pity.
No! let him breed the short-born duck,
And Poland-China gobbler—
We'll burden with the cares of State,
The Tanner and the Cobbler!
The grand array of Commonwealths
They'll hind, as with a tether,
That ne'er again shall broken be—
For nothing holds like leather!

The virtues, brians and honesty
Of Horace they poke at us;
As if the Cincinnati fraud,
Made him a Cincinnatus!
And while he seeks a season brief
Of rural peace and quiet,
Pure water is his only drink,
Pure dirt his only diet!
His old white hat and old white coat
Have served all kinds of weather,
But they are like his principles—
They will not wear like leather!

The squad that sought old Chappaqua,
To marshal 'neath his pennon,
Will be suprised to meet our flag,
And find there is a Hen. on!
That flag is borne by gallant hands,
Four million votes behind it:
Alas! Where is the mongrel hope?
"Go West"—they cannot find it!
Like Grant, when in the Wilderness,
We'll "push," in spite of weather;
And "on this line we'll fight it out"—
There nothing is like leather!

Then Freedom's temple, rear it high!
And if we need a cap-stone,
Or key to bind a broken arch,
Take Henry Wilson's lap-stone!
To guard it we must have a man
Who never halts nor misses;
We've many soldiers tried and true—
None better than Ulysses!
The Tanner and the Cobbler are
The men to work together;
They'll win the field, and keep it too—
For nothing holds like leather!

Selected Story.

Why Tommy Didn't Go.

A Story for Whomsoever the Shoe pinches.

BY JOHN R. DICKIE.

"Look here, Betsy," said Danniel Delver, as he walked into the kitchen, one chilly March morning, with a pail of milk in each hand, "look here, now. There is somethin' up, and no mistake. That boy, Tommy, has made tracks for Sunbury agin, as sure as shootin'!"

His wife, a neat, bright-eyed, cherry-looking lady—yes, a lady, mind you!—took the milk into the pantry, strained it, carried it down cellar, returned, cleared off the breakfast things, set back the table, and disappeared once more in the pantry without saying a word.

Mr. Daniel Delver was considerably surprised. He had never known his amiable spouse to observe so strict a silence at any remark of his since they had been man and wife. He really didn't know what to make of it. He drew a little nearer to the stove, rubbed his hands vigorously coughed nervously, and finally made bold to say:

"Why, Betsey, what's up?"

"I was thinking, Daniel, of the day you and I were married," was the answer, in a sudden voice.

"Is that so?" replied Mr. Delver, faintly; "well, I declare!" and he sat down and glanced around as if he didn't exactly feel at home.

But matters had not yet come to their worst. If he had only known the turn affairs were about to take, he could have made some sort of preparation; but as it was he was totally unprepared. Therefore, when his wife stepped hastily into the room and threw a pair of plump arms around his neck, and kissed him three times, in rapid succession, his astonishment knew no bounds. Totally floored by such an unusul display of affection, he could do nothing better than reiterate his former question:

"Why, Betsy, what's up?"

"Well, I'll tell you what's up, and that very quickly," replied his wife, as she seated herself on his knee and imprisoned his brawny hands between both of hers; "indeed I will. I'm going to give you a regular curtain lecture."

The prisoner began to look decidedly silly.

"You see, when you said Tommy was off again I took to thinking of the day we were married. Don't you remember a little remark you made at that time?"

The prisoner made a movement as if he would free his hands from their manacles, and shook his head.

"Well, I do, then. You boasted that if ever you were blessed with a son you should be sure of success in his training; for you could never forget, as many do, that you were once a boy yourself. But you have forgotton it, and by your thoughtlessness—and love of self, too, Daniel—you are slowly but surely driving our only child from a home he dreads to leave, as we to have him go."

This was the first time in her life that Mrs. Delver had ventured to talk plainly to her husband. That they loved each other there was no doubt whatever. A more even tempered man than Delver never lived, and his wife fully appreciated it, as any sensible woman would. But he had one fault—a fault he was not aware of possessing, of course. It was selfshness. Although not a stingy man, in the exact sense of the word, he evidently considered himself the fountain-head from which all blessings eminated, and as a natural consequence, has come to the conclusion that profits must fill the pockets of him who had to suffer the loss.

But, as we before remarked, he didn't know that he was selfish—never had any such idea; and when his wife gave a hint to that effect, his indignation knew no bounds. Springing to his feet, he confronted his jailor with an angry frown, and the words:

"I'm selfish, am I? Well, well, now. But (he had never nicknamed her before), I think things is comin' to a pretty pass! Where'd you a bin if it hadn't been for me, I'd like to know? All you do is to ask for what store clothes and other fixins you want, and you git 'em. What fills up that bank you're all the time a drawin' on, hey? Its that there selfishness, as you call it; and without it we'd all be in the poor-house to-day."

At this point Mr. Delver called a halt, and pulling a splinter off a stick of stove-wood in the box at his feet, began picking his teeth quite vigorously. But seeing his wife would say nothing, he proceeded with his remarks, but in a somewhat milder key:

"There, s Tommy, now; I've done a heap for that boy—handed over pocket-money, fed his company, give him good clothin', with the intention of doin' well by him when he's twenty-one; but the scamp don't appreciate it no more than nothin'. I've done my best, and if he's a mind to git contrary and want two oars, he must row his own boat, that's all, for I'm gettin' sick of the way things is goin' on, anyhow."

Here the speaker found some unusual obstruction between a couple of back teeth, and proceeded to dislodge it with all possible dispatch.

"But, Daniel," interposed his wife, "why can't you begin to do well by Tommy now? You forget that he's seventeen years old—too old to be punished, and old enough to feel a little natural independence. Now, you've done little more than feed and clothe him from his boyhood up. Of course you mean to give him a chance when a little older; but, if you keep on at this rate, he'll never see twenty-one on this farm. I've often heard you complain that he takes no interest in anything—either in stock or the growing crops. I think there is good reason, Daniel. You don't give him an interest in a single thing. Yes, you did give him a calf once, but when the father came along you sold it and put the money in your own pocket. You let him drop corn for Mr. Blake last Spring, but it all went toward paying off a debt you owed that neighbor. Tommy's a good, industrious boy, but you know he's high-strung, and is bound to learn a trade rather than go on this way. He may find a place at Sunbury. I don't know. I do wish the boy could stay with us, and he will if we are just a little more liberal toward him. I think it's all false economy, Daniel, that makes a parent close in his dealings with a child, and you'll believe it some day, if not now."

We are happy state that this good lady did not conclude her remarks with the usual flood of tears. She reserved them for a more suitable occasion, and went about her work, treading softly, singing softly, and glancing softly in the direction of her husband, who now stood with one foot on the wood-box, his elbow on his knee, and his head buried in his hand.

It hurts poor human nature to be told the truth in reference to itself. It often hurts one more to have it told by one who loves him than by a casual acquaintance. After a few moments reflection however, the afflicted individual puts a proviso on his former assertion by hoping he or she didn't intend to wound his feelings; which thought gradually melts into the conclusion that the offender may be about right after all.

Mr. Delver was passing through this trying ordeal. Of course his wife knew it, but you wouldn't have thought if by her looks. Bless you! she appeared as unconscious as need be, and didn't seem the least bit surprised when he straightened up, and said in his usual tone:

"Well, wife, you may have hit the nail on the head, I don't know. Come to think it over, like enough you have. I ain't certain as to your hittin' it right square, but I'm willin' to turn over a new leaf by way of experimentin', you know, with the agreement of backin' out if the thing don't work. How's that?"

No, it wasn't a silvery laugh It didn't sound one particle like "the rippling of the waves upon the pebbly shore." No, no. But such a hearty, healthy, contagious burst of merriments, that Danniel laughed quite heartily himself, and was sorry, when he got through, that it hadn't lasted longer.

"Why, you odd creature"—there were tears in her eyes but she'd been laughing, you know—"I don't think we've got to turn over much of a new leaf. I"—but a strong arm encircled her waist and drew her into the adjoining room; and there upon the sofa, side by side, they sat and talked until the old Dutch clock in the corner coughed eleven times—then Mr. Delver went out to feed his stock, and his wife to prepare the dinner.

II.

It was 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Delver had retired an hour ago. But there was a fire in the stove, and the coffee-pot on the back part of the same rocked to and fro in a state of much agitation. The oven-door was ajar, and we discovered inside a plate of sausage, some fried potatoes, and half a mince pie. We know it's mince, for we can smell it. A lamp half turned down stands on the little pine table just back of a cup and saucer, a clean plate, a knife and one fork. Reader, there is no use denying the fact that room was expecting company.

It didn't have long to wait. A quick step on the plank which led from the gate to the house, a vigorous scraping of feet on the stone steps, and the abrupt entrance of the visitor—Tommy himself!

There was nothing peculiar in the appearance of this young gentleman excepting his appetite. That found the location of the sausage, potatoes and mince-pie in a twinkling, and in another twinkling they were upon the table side by side of the coffee-pot, which had got there in some mysterious manner we wot not of. Of course he had on an overcoat, and a hat; but they were not at all in the way, and so he sat down without further parley. In 10 minutes' time the mince-pie had vanished; also the potatoes, also the sausage. There was nothing left but coffee. So he replenished his cup, leaned back in his chair, and glanced languidly around the room. He didn't glance long—he looked. No wonder, either; for there, suspended by a string from the ceiling, was a letter. Tommy rubbed his eyes, and at last, fully convinced that he was awake, rose to his feet, clipped the cord, glanced at the superscription, and found it was addressed to himself. He scratched his head in a bewildered manner and glanced in the direction of the lamp Overjoyed to find it turned down, he made the matter worse by producing a blaze which blackened the chimney in a moment. But he gradually got the wick in the proper position, and finding himself by this time relieved of any undue excitement, broke open the letter. The first thing he found was a $10 bill. The next thing he found was the letter itself. It ran thus:

"JUST BEFORE GOING TO BED,
March 10, 18—.

MY BOY: We thought you might want to go on a visit to your Uncle Isaac's next week, and we inclose ten dollars to pay expences. Don't stay a very great while—not more than two or three weeks—for we want you to be here to take your pick out of those Norman colts, and to transact a little business in which you are interested. We shall expect you to chop wood the rest of the week, Tommy, and I'll fix up your shirts so that you can start on the train Monday morning. Good night, my own dear boy, and pleasant dreams. MOTHER."

Tommy came pretty near being thunderstruck. He had never been the possessor of $10, at one time, in his whole life before; and he gazed at the bill assiduously for not less than fifteen minutes. At the expiration of this time he drew out his wallet, folded the note carefully, and laid it as smoothly as possible in the deepest pocket. He then reread the letter, and taking the lamp in his hand, went out in the wood-house. After some considerable fumbling among the chips he found an axe. Carefully scrutinizing the edge, he laid it down, saying:

"Confound her, she's dull; but I guess I can make her do the rest of the week. One of them colts, hey?" and he slapped his pocket triumphantly—"that's gay, and no mistake. And there's other business in which I'm interested, too. Jolly! but things looks lively, anyhow," and the young gentleman slapped his pocket once more, which act put him in mind of the ten dollars. So he set the lamp down on a block of wood, and, withdrawing his pocket-book, found the identical bill safe and sound. He examined it full ten minutes by the watch. Finally he got back in the kitchen. He found the letter just where he left it, and read it once more to see if there was anything he'd skipped. He then felt to see if his pocket-book was all right, and opened it to see if everything was snug inside. Seeing the ten dollars, he drew it out, and examined it great curiosity for something like five minutes, then went to bed.

He arose remarkably early the next morning—earlier than usual, although he had retired at so late an hour. He ate breakfast with an appetite, but did not venture any remark in reference to the letter he had received the night before. He felt that postmasters distributed the mails without regard to their contents, and concluded to keep silent. Promptly at 7 he shouldered his axe and proceeded to the woods, where he chopped all day with an energy of purpose perfectly surprising. He worked just as hard the next day, and the next, and the next, and the next. But that was Sunday. Well, he didn't chop that day: but he thought a good deal about making money, and the visit almost at hand, and that colt, add the $10, and any amount of other things just as bad, you know.

Monday morning came at its regular time, and Tommy was up before daylight. He was somewhat uneasy at the thought of having to wait until after breakfast; but he managed to pass away the time packing his valise. When the bell rang, he sat down and drank a cup of tea, and then got up and put on his hat. He wasn't hungry, and might miss the train, and so good-bye—and he was off. We would add, in order to prevent anxiety, that Tommy didn't miss the train. He was two hours ahead of time, and the train itself was one hour behind. So he had to wait three dismal hours. But he got away at last, and was happy.

At the expiration of two weeks he returned, and upon being requested to take his pick of the four colts standing in the yard, he did so. He selected the best one. He was then given a half dozen sheep, one pig, one calf, and an acre of ground, on which to plant what he chose, the profits to be his and his alone. Of course it's understood that he should work for his father, as usual, but that was a minor consideration. But at this point of our story Tommy came out strong. Picture the amazement of his parents when he told them, with a knowing wink, that he was going to set that whole acre out in late cabbage!

Mr. Delver said to his wife:

"Betsy, I wonder if that boy got that ridiculous idea out of that book on gardenin' he had here all last week? I know we're close to a good market, but cabbage never has nor never will head well on this farm."

Mrs. Delver said to her husband:

"Well Daniel we'll hope for the best. Cabbages par well if they do succeed, and he will likely get enough off the land to pay for his labor at least."

But Tommy bought the seed and soon had thousands of young cabbage plants in full blast. But they didn't occupy his time by any means. He suddenly took to doing a man's work on the farm—a proceeding which filled his father with delight. Up early in the morning, until almost dark did he toil steadily along until the corn was all planted. Then he prepared his own acre, and by the last of May was ready to set out his plants.

At this point he asked his father a question. It ran something after this fashion:

"Say, pa, I'd like to hire you to-day and to-morrow. I want you to help me to set out them cabbage plants."

Mr. Delver looked somewhat bewildered, but finally made bold to ask what wages he paid.

"I'll give a dollar and a half a day, and pay in cabbages, or in money when I market 'em."

Of course no sane man could refuse such a generous offer, and they went to work forthwith. They may have been engaged a half hour, when two boys about Tommy's age came into the field in their shirt-sleeves and considerably out of breth.

"All right boys," said the gardner, "all right. There's the plants, and let's work lively."

"Do you board those two young gentlemen?" asked Tommy's "hired hand," as the bell rang for dinner.

"No, father," replied Tommy, with his first gigle, "they board themselves. I've paid them off already. Jim gits my new patent skates, and Charlie, my old soldier overcoat. If I make well on these cabbage, I can buy something better next Winter."

Mr. Delver turned pale, and ventured no further remark.

Fall came, and Tommy marketed his crop, which had done quite well. It brought him $200. His father borrowed the money and put another $100 with it, as a free gift, giving him ten per cent on the whole. This was a pretty good Summer's work for a boy seventeen years old, and Tommy felt very proud of it—rather prouder than he ought to, I'm afraid.

They say the story writer must invariably conclude a narrative pleasantly, in order to make a good impression. But we can't do this. Tommy got badly mixed as the years rolled away. What with the stock the farm crops, the rebuilding, the repainting, and regular journeys to a white cottage a mile away—the residence of a nice young lady—Tommmy became hopelessly involved.

This, then, is the reason "why Tommy did'nt go."

Miscellaneous.

The New Stamp Law.

As it has been a disputed question whether certain stamp taxes were abolished by the revenue law passed at the close of the last session of Congress, the correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce has taken especial pains to ascertain just how far the abolition extends. The new law in this respect reads as follows:

SECTION 36. That on and after the first day of October, 1872, all the taxes imposed by stamps under and by virtue of schedule B, of section 170 of the act approved June 30, 1864 and the several acts amendatory thereof be and the same are hereby repealed, excepting only the tax of two cents on bank checks, drafts or orders. Provided that where any mortgage has been executed and recorded, before the first day of October, 1872, to secure the payment of bonds or obligations that may be made and issued on or before the first day of October, 1872, shall not be subject to any stamp duty but only such of their bonds or obligations as may have been issued before the day last aforesaid: And provided further that in the meantime the holder of any instrument of writing of whatsoever kind and description which has been made or issued without being duly stamped or with a defunct stamp, may make application to any collector of internal revenue, and that upon application such collector shall thereupon affix the stamp provided by such holder upon such instrument of writing as required by law to be put upon the same, and subject to the provisions of section 158 of the internal revenue laws.

According to the internal revenue circular, soon to be issued, this means abolition in respect of the following instruments that now require stamps, and the ready may accept this careful epitome as final.

STAMPS ARE TO BE ABOLISHED ON

Contracts for insurance against accidental injuries.
Affidavits.
All agreements or contracts, or renewals of the same.
Appraisements, of value or damage, or for any other purpose.
Assignments of a lease, mortgage, policy of insurance, or anything else.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES ON THE STATE TICKET.

Judge Merrimon, the Democratic Candidate for Governer volunteered as a Commissary in 1861, before the State seceded. He soon retired to a bomb proof. He has ever been an enemy to the Homestead. He went so far that he actually endevored to raise money to carry a case to the Supreme Court of the United State for the avowed purpose of having the Homestead provision of the Constitution declared unconstitutional!

J. H. SEPARK, Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, volunteered as a Lieutenant in 1851.—He stayed one year, but left the wool-hat boys after that.

Judge SHIP, Democratic candidate for Attorney General, volunteered as Captain of a company during the late war. He soon got tired and went home, leaving his company to fight it out.

Maj. HUGHES, Democratic candidate for Lieut. Governor, fought through the entire war with a quartermaster's commission in his pocket. Gen. Grant resolved himself into an Auditor and settled Maj. Hughes, quartermaster account at Appomattox Court House.

JOHN W. GRAHAM, Democratic candidate for Treasurer, and John A. Womack, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, both signed the Conservative address of 1871, declared that they must levy a tax to pay the public debt, resign or perjure themselves.—they did'nt levy the tax, they did not resign. If they perjured themselves as they declared they would, are they fit to be further trusted?

THE KU KLUX BILL.

The Ku Klux bill, for which the Democrats so lustily abuse Mr. COBB, proved efficient in restoring peace. Think of the condition of the infected counties previous to the passage of that act! Men were riding at night, armed and disguised, by scores and hundreds, shooting down, torturing and persecuting men and women because of their political opinions. Were the lives of the citizens of the State to be imperiled? Was their flesh to be lacerated? Was such a reign of terror to exist and the government put forth no effort to restrain the work of the assassins? Mr. COBB felt it to be his duty to act, and he did so. He thought it was necessary. And so did HORACE GREELEY before he turned Democrat. In 1871, not more than a year ago, he said!

"I hold the Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable Ku Klux conspiracy; and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham. I therefore on every proper occasion advocated and justified the Ku Klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger and stronger."

HOW FALLEN!

"How are the mighty fallen and their weapons of war perished." The Democratic party in its desperation is catching, like a drowning man at a straw. With uplifted hands it is grasping convulsively at the old white coat of that disappointed Philosopher HORACE GREELEY. We repeat "how are the mighty fallen." The great old Whig party went down while fighting bravely, and with all theirs colors flying. But the Democratic party makes a cowardly surrender to a Falstaffian squad of political adventurers and disappointed office seekers who have selected for their leader a vascillating, erratic and disappointed old man who for years has been afflicted with the fatal disease of "Presidency on the brain."

THE PROSPECTS.

From all parts of the State the reports are gratifying and full of encouragement. The Republican party is in excellent condition. Its unity is unbroken and its spirit was never better. It speaks everywhere with one voice—the ticket, "one and inseparable," on the 1st of August, and then the National ticket on the 5th of November. And it entertains no doubt of carrying both triumphantly, in defiance of all the opposition that can be brought to bear against them by open foes or secret enemies. This confidence is universal, and it is at once an impulse to action and a guarantee of success.

In North Carolina, the Ku Klux have committed EIGHTEEN MURDERS and THREE HUNDRED and FIFTEEN WHIPPINGS, SCOURGINGS, and MAIMINGS, all of which were endorsed by the Democratic party in nominating John W. Graham, for Treasurer, who introduced a bill to pardon the perpetrators of these crimes against law and humanity.

THE DEMOCRATIC "BOLT!"

A number of the leading Democrats, representing nearly every State in the Union, have bolted the Baltimore Convention. They say the Democratic party has been sold but insist that it has not yet been delivered. They held a convention in Baltimore and issued the following address to the Democrats of the country. It will be seen that a regular Simon Pure Democratic Convention will be held in Loisville, Ky., on the 3d of September:

In view of the action which has this day been taken by the Democratic National Convention, sitting in this city, in the adoption of a platform distinctly Republican, and the nomination, as a candidate for the Presidency, of a man who has been for years the most bitter and implacable enemy of the Democratic party, this conference of Democrats from different States of the Union has been convened to take such action as the honor and safety of the Democratic cause and the interest of the country demand; and, as preliminary to, and in justification of, our propsed action, we hereby declare, that the aforesaid proceedings of the said National Convention are a virtual dissolution of the hitherto existing organization of the Democratic party; that they are an unconditional abandonment of the principles of the Democratic party, and the acceptance of such as are conflicting and irreconcileble with them; that by this action, the said Convention, as claiming to represent the Democratic party, has been false to its obligation of duty, to principle, to regard for consistency, and to every sentiment of political honor; and as it can represent the Democratic party only by adherence to its principles, and can make nominations which Democrats are bound to support only by naming candidates who are known and recognized Democrats.

Therefore, The action which it has taken, so far from being binding as the action of the Democratic party, should be spurned by all true Democrats, and resisted with unyielding tenacity, and to the uttermost extremity. Denying that Democracy is dead, or that it can ever die while the principles of our fathers are cherished by even a few true and devoted hearts, we seize and again fling to the breeze, for all true Democrats to rally around, the banner so faithlessly lowered, and pledge our undying devotion to the principles which it represents, deeming those principles to involve living and enduring issues:

First: The system of government established by our fathers was a Federal Union of co-equal States.

Second: We hold to the doctrine of State rights, and of a strict construction of the Federal Constitution, as defined by Thomas Jefferson, and to the perpetuation of popular liberty in this country, and to those essential principles of government enumerated by him in his first inaugural address, as follows: "Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State, or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; a well disciplined militia, our best reliance in peace, and for the first moments of war, till regulars may relieve them; the supremacy of the civil over the military authority; freedom of religion; freedom of the press; freedom of the person under the protection of the habeas corpus; trial by juries impartially selected." To which should be added what Mr. Jefferson defined as "the sum of good government—a wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, which shall leave them otherwise free to regulate thgir own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned."

We recommend that our Democratic fellow-citizens in the several States form Democratic State organizations, and do all in their power to change the growing defection from true Democratic principles, and select a Democratic Committee, to consist of one member from each State and Territory, to exercise all the powers usually exercised by committees of like character; and we further suggest and recommend that a Convention held at Lousville, Ky., on Tuesday, the 3d of September, 1872, to take such steps as may be deemed prudent and essential.

HOW ABOUT THE SCHOOL FUNDS.

The burthen of Col. CARTER's speech at Elizabeth City was the squandering by the Radicals of the School Fund. Now what are the facts?

As soon as the Legislature met at the session of 1870-'71 the Senate appointed a committee consisting of Dr. Love and Dr. Worth (both Democrats) "to ascertain the amount of money in the Treasury" and they reported as follows;

The committee created by a resolution of the Senate, adopted December 8th 1870, entitled a resolution to "ascertain the actual amount of money in the Treasury," report under three distinct heads, to wit:

1. Amount of general fund,
2. Amount of special tax fund,
3. Amount of Literary fund, that they find in the hands of the Treasurer $531,21. Of this sum $55,213,20, are special tax deposits of Sheriffs on account of taxes for the year 1869, and $20,354,23, special deposits of Sheriffs on account of tax for the year 1870. These deposits $75,566,73, are not available because they cannot be apportioned among the several funds until these Sheriffs pay in their several balances. Your Committee further find that $484,-859,69, were collected under the "special" tax acts during the Autumn of 1869, and paid into the Treasurer. That under authority of law, the Treasurer had up to January 20th 1870, paid out of this fund $208,470, when he was forbidden by the General Assembly to make further parments. That of the residue $276,389,69, he was directed by acts of the General Assembly, ratified March 12th and 28th 1870, to borrow and use $250,000 of said sum for certain purposes specified in said acts, and replace the same out of any moneys which might come into the Treasury, by way of dividends of corporations or of taxes heretofore or hereafter to be levied. Of this sum so used $172,172,76 has been replaced in the Treasury, from the sources mentioned above, leaving a deficit of $77,-827 24, of the sum borrowed, under the acts aforsaid. Your Committee sum up as follow:

Money in the Treasury Dec. 10th, 1870	$531,231,21
Am't of spec'l tax fund,	198,562,45
Am't of literary fund,	257,088,13
Special deposits by Sheriffs, for the year 1869,	55,213,50
Specials deposits of Sheriffs, for the year 1870	20,354,22
	$531,213,21

All of which is respectfully submitted.
W. L. LOVE, Chm'n.
J. M. WORTH.

The special tax fund of $198,562,45 collected under Republican rule was all used by the Democratic Legislature.

THE FIRST SENATORIAL DISTRICT

The prospects in this District are very encouraging. Our friends have generally been wise in their local nominations and especially in their selection of candidates for the Legislature. The nominees are all unexceptionable—are men of character and popular strength.

In Hertford County JAMES SHARPE is the Republican candidate. He is a man of ability, is a worker, and he will be elected. In Gates County JOSEPH SMITH, —the Republican nominee, is going to give the Greeleyized Democracy a "a close rub." The ostracism that has hitherto prevented quite a number of the people of that county from voting in accordance with their convictions is largely broken down, and as the result the vote in August will show a Republican gain. In Chowan everything is working well. The Republican candidate for the Legislature is JOHN L. WINSLOW. He will carry the county by an increased majority. In Perquimans J. R. DARDEN is deservedly popular. Everybody knows him, everybody likes him and everybody has confidence in him. Perquimans will do her full duty. In Pasquotank we have nominated FRANK M. GODFREY—a good man. He will stand by the interests of the District and he will do all in his power to promote and defend those of the State. In Camden the Republicans have nominated SIMEON A. JONES. He is a man of ability and will beat his competitor by a handsome majority. In Currituck the anti-Ku Klux and anti-Convention Candidate is THOMAS C. HUMPHRIES. As the people of that county know that he never "goes back" on their best interests a majority of them think very seriously of electing him.

To sum up, we feel certain of carrying five of the seven counties of the District for the House with a fair prospect of the other two; and as for the Senate we now feel that the District can be carried. Continued work on the part of our friends will make it certain. There is no doubt about it.

A "ROORBACK."

The Democrats started a "roorback" story, concocted by that unscrupulous demagogue Congressman BECK, that the Administration has transmitted from the Treasury through Marshall CARROW, over two hundred thousand dollars to be used in this State for election purposes. But since it has been ascertained that the sum has dwindled down to twenty thousand dollars, and that for the proper disbursement of this amount the Government holds ample security, will the parties who have been circulating the slander be manly enough to retract it? A Washington correspondent says:

The simple fact is that no such payment has been made, or anything like it. The last requisition which passed the Attorney General's office in favor of the Marshal of North Carolina was on the 5th inst. It was drawn in regular course of business, was only $20,000 in amount, and was to meet the expenses of the United States Courts of that State already incurred for the term just closed. These requisitions for the various Marshals pass nearly every day. Two passed to-day for the Marshal of Georgia, whereon frightened Congressmen can build another ridiculous story. They are never allowed to exceed the amount of the bond given, save in some exceptional instances, and Marshals have to furnish vouchers for all monies expended, like all other disbursing officers.

MERRIMAN'S GAME OF BLUFF.

Judge MERRIMAN, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has got mad. Having indulged in all manner of charges and abuse against Senator POOL, when the latter quietly gives him a dose of his own medicine by circulating under his frank some damaging charges against the vulnerable candidate, he flies in a passion and threatens to sue for libel. It only shows the desperation of MERRIMAN. Unable to refute the charges, he attempts to create the impression they are false by appealing to the Courts! Senator POOL calmly and defiantly replies in these words!

Your threat to bring suit in the courts is but the echo of what your press has already proclaimed. Let the proceeding be commenced before the day of election, for many will confound the right to bring a suit with the right to maintain it, and your party may reap the benefit of the error. Your Court commences on the eighth Monday after the second Monday in August. I will be within the reach of process whenever you wish, or accept it at your pleasure. In the mean time, I shall continue to frank such public documents and publications as my party friends believe should be circulated for the information of my constituents.

GREELEY NOMINATED—THE DEMOCRATIC SURRENDER.

As we predicted the Democratic party, in their National Convention at Baltimore, have made HORACE GREELEY their standard bearer and leader. Through the most unscrupulous and scandalous political bargaining in all our history this apostate Republican has been made the candidate of the self stultified Democracy. It was done under the operation of what Senator BAYARD called the "gag rule," and by this action the Democratic party has relinquished all the issues for or against which it has struggled hitherto so bravely, and, enlisting itself under the banner of the Cincinnatti office seeker and malcontents, it has yielded all that made it distinctive and worthy of admiration. By the nomination of MR. GREELEY it acknowledges that its own partisan opinions have sunk so low in the public favor as to be beyond redemption, and inspired now only by the desire to secure the spoils of office, it accepts as leader a man who has gained his whole reputation by fighting Democracy and its tenets.

To the honest Democrat—the Democrat who conscientiously has beleived that his party was guided by principle, the spectacle presented by the Baltimore Convention is a sad one; for in the entire history of that party there has never been so pitiable an exhibition of its demoralization as this. Just think of it! Nearly 700 men, representing the party of all the States, voting away all their past partisanship, and in humble reverence, bowing down before the golden calf set up for their worship by a miserable party of discontented Republicans. Was there ever such a miserable exhibition of weakness?

THE CONTRAST.

The Republican Party clings to no dead body. It ever has been and is to day a progressive party. The Democratic party endorses all the villanies that have disgraced its past course.

The Republican party lives for the present and future. The Democratic party dwells in the catacombs of the past, and ghoul like, feeds on the dead.

That some of the worst mea in the country have donned white hats and are hurrahing lustily for GREELEY, is a fact patent to all who have eyes and ears. This is especially true of his own State. Men whom he has been as vigorously as justly denouncing for years past, have had the magnanimity to overlook the personal grievance, forgive the harsh language, and forget their ancient grudge against the editor in their newborn enthusiasm for the candidate. Hardly anywhere has his nomination commanded more demonstrative favor or a more zealous support than among those New-York politicians of both parties who whilom sat at the feet of Mr. Tweed and ran at his beck.

"NEW YORK, JULY 10.—On the announcement of the nomination of Greeley and Brown, three field pieces fired one hundred guns in the City Hall Park, flags were hoisted on the City Hall, and a banner was suspended between two large trees in the Park, with an inscription that "Tammany responds to the National Convention of Baltimore.""

Exactly. It is just as we expected. But remember that when Tammany responds, honest men stand aloof. When Tammany endorses, patriotic men see good reason for rejecting. Where Tammany leads the good people of the country will refuse to follow.

It will be pleasant reading to Democrats, during the campaign, to peruse what Horace Greeley thought of them before he became a candidate for their suffrages. While they sit in the shade they can enjoy such paragraphs as this, which Greeley wrote in the Tribune in 1867.

If there were not a newspaper nor a common school in the country, the Democratic party would be far stronger than it is. Neither elementary instruction nor knowledge of transpiring events is necessary to teach essential elements of the Democratic creed; LOVE RUM AND HATE NIGGERS." The less one learns and knows, the more certain he is to "vote the regular ticket, from A. to Izzard."

Greeley Democracy means office. There has been no solid argument advanced by the Democratic Liberals or the Liberal Democrats that they can or will make any reforms in the civil service! They will try merely to hold the offices, and there is not the least sign of hope that the civil service will be better administered or better filled than now. The country is prosperous. The people are comparatively happy. What can the mongrel party do to to better our condition?

Republicans are charged with oppression. Has any citizen ever been arrested or in any way "oppressed," unless he had secretly conspired against the Government and against the life and liberty of his fellow-citizens? No but the minions of the Davis despotism during the war, incarcerated humble, inoffensive citizens time and again for nothing but opinion's sake, just as the Ku Klux have scourged, maimed and murdered hundreds since the war.

Republicans are charged with usurpation. Did they ever trample down the constitution to make places for fellow-partizans? No; but Ku Klux Democracy over-rode the Constitution and ignored the Governor elected by the people to make berths for its dirty-workers as in the appointment of Deputy Governors, &c.

During a recent visit to Boston HORACE GREELEY was called on for a speech. It reminded one of ANDY JOHNSON's "swinging around the circle." The talent of speech-making seems to take about the same turn in both—self laudation. The speech was a defence a agains this critics and a puffing of his own virtues.

News from all parts of the State is of the most cheering character. Gov. CALDWELL is now canvassing the West and where ever he goes arouses the most earnest enthusiasm. The State can be put down at from 10,000 to 15,000 Republican majority, and we will carry the Legislature also.

The Democratic party want to change the Constitution so as to take away from the people the right to vote for Magistrates and Judges. Are the people willing? If not, see to it that no Democrat is elected to the Legislature or to the Senate.

It was in Baltimore the Democrats first shed blood in resisting the Union; it was in Baltimore these same Democrats endorsed HORACE GREELEY for President. Significant.

Gideon Welles has come out for Greeley.—Exchange.

Sinbad the Sailor, the Flying Dutchman and Robinson Crusoe are yet to be heard from.

The Baltimore Convention has chilled the hopes of "Simon pure" Democrats! The frost of November will utterly blight them.

AS HORACE GREELY is now presented to the country as the regularly nominated Democratic candidate, he loses all claims to Republican support.

Republican Meeting in Salem.

Pursuant to notice a large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at Salem on Saturday, July 13th., at 3 o'clock P. M. The meeting was organized by calling J. S. Wilcox to the chair and appointing Thomas Wilcox Sec'y. Addreses were made by J. H. Shaw Esq. Dr. P. John, Frank M. Godfrey, Thos. A. Sykes, and Miles Commander. Salem will give a good report in August.

A Card from Mr. Cobb.

Elizabeth City N. C., July 17th, 1872.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

On my arrival home yesterday, I was handed a copy of the Economist newspaper containing several articles reflecting on myself.

It has not been my practice heretofore to notice such attacks, nor would I in this instance, were it not that importance is given, in a newspaper published in my own town, to an unfounded charge which has had some former currency viz; the origin and authorship of the Bill introduced by me commonly known as the "Ku Klux act," being attributed to Gen-Butler.

The history of the Bill is simply this: I had conceived the idea that an act could be framed which would meet a double need, first the protection of the citizens of the country against the hellish outrages of the Ku Klux assassins and secondly, the payment of the loyal citizens of the South for losses sustained by them during the war. Having digested the plan thoroughly, I called upon Gen. Butler for his aid in framing the phraseology of the Bill which he cheerfully rendered.

Gen. Butler has taken occasion to say publicly and privately, what I have above stated.

Hon. Geo. W. Brooks was present in Washington during a conversation between Gen. B. and myself upon this subject, when Gen. B. disavowed and disclaimed any credit for the ideas contained in the Bill, saying that he only rendered the assistance of a lawyer and legislator in the preparation of its language.

The substance of the above, I have stated on the stump, during the present canvass and hoped that there would be no necessity for its repetition.

I believe I am well enough known in this District and State, to have some reputation as an independent man. Since I have had the honor of a seat in Congress I have pursued a fearless course, thinking acting and speaking for myself, on all necessary occasions. This same fearless course I shall pursue in the future, and whoever asserts that I ever have or ever will allow myself to be made a "tool to do the work" ("dirty" or otherwise) of any man, lies and maliciously lies.

Very Repectfully,
C. L. COBB.

"Read and Circulate."

This little pamplet, which has been extensively circulated in this State under the frank of Senator Pool seems to have aroused the ire of the unterrified democracy. The truth always hurts a bad cause. The whole pack, "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart" have opened on the Senator, and it is amusing to observe how successfully he sent them all back yelping to their kennels. Merrimon first made the attack and got so badly worsted that his friends are ashamed of him. Even his own papers are afraid to publish the corespondence between him and Pool Unable to clear his skirts, he resorts to the game of bluff and threatens suit! He ought to have had better sense. The great champion of locofocoism having been ignominiously vanquished, the small fry then come in. The whole opposition press of the State pours fourth its billings gate in the usual style, but fails to disprove the charges or to publish the correspondence. If the pamphlet had been a mere tissue of falsehoods, as is charged, the matter would have stopped here. But the truth hurts so badly that Dr. Speed, a life-long personal friend of Senator Pool, goes out of his way to make an attack upon him. He forgot how vulnerable his own record was. He forgot that he told the people, last summer, that if the Convention was not called his oath would require him to levy a tax too grevious to be borne, or else resign. He loved office too well to resign, and he did not levy the tax. He forgot that he introduced a bill requiring a property qualification for the municipal officers of Elizabeth City, which was so clearly unconstitutional that his own party snowed it under. But I had no purpose to attack the Doctor. He is a very clever gentleman, and by refusing to run for the State Senate, perhaps, he expected to escape his record.

A brief reference more to the Doctor's article in the last issue of the Economist. In the first paragraph, there is a very grave charge against F. M. Godfrey Esq. Nobody ever heard the charge before and I hope, the matter will be called to Mr. Godfrey's attention. From my own knowledge of Godfrey's character, I think the Doctor charges the wrong man. If I remember rightly he mistates another fact. He says, that Cox was killed for the murder of Darius White, and for having made a plot to massacre indiscriminately unarmed men and women. So far as the plot is concerned, it existed only in the heated imagination of the Doctor and his friends. Cox was murdered before White and the latter was shot in retaliation. This places an entirely different face upon the whole affair and shows how loosely the Doctor states facts for the purpose of attacking his friend.

The second paragraph is unworthy of notice, and one would think that it came from the pen of Joe Turner and not from the pen of a gentleman like Doctor Speed.

The third paragraph denies the charge that Merrimon drew the bills by which Swepson swindled the State. Unfortunately the Doctor and his chief disagree about the facts. Merrimon, in his Chatham speech, if I have seen it correctly reported, admitted that he drew the bills and that Swepson paid him Ten Thousand Dollars for doing so; but charged Caldwell with having drawn an amendment, which amendment was in Caldwell's hand-writing. An examination of this amendment will show that it made no reference whatever to the appropriations, but referred to the mode of electing directors and other officers of the road. Neither Merrimon nor his friends can shirk the responsibility by charging the fraud upon the honest Governor of North Carolina. This section goes on to refer to Merrimon's connection with the prosecution of the forty women who broke into the Confederate commisary stores and took half a bushel of meal apiece to save themselves and their little ones from starvation. He calls this stealing and says they ought to have been punished. Here again the Doctor and his chief differs. Merrimon thought they did not deserve punishment and, noble-minded man that he was, suffered them to go home in peace, after he had wrung from them the hard earnings, of which they stood so much in need. Merrimon and his friends cannot escape. The truth hurts.

The Doctor passes over the charge, that Merrimon is opposed to the homestead very cavalierly. The record is against him and he wisely makes no comments.

The Doctor characterizes the charges against Leventhrope, Leach, Vance, Graham, Owen in the wood, thumb-screws, &c., as a "mess." Well, it is an awful mess for any decent man to eat and live. It will be observed, that the charges are not denied; but an attempt is made to break the force of the unpalatable truths, by reference to the arrest of two ladies here by General Wild. The action of Wild caused a burst of indignant wrath and execration to be poured upon his head by all decent men of all parties. But when Leventhrope acts infinitely worse and pens and imprisons forty women, instead of two, he is endorsed by the "party of respectability" and his democratic papers say, that his war record entitled him to it. "Gracious God, what a mess" is this Democratic, Conservative, Liberal Republican, Horace Greeley, anybody to beat Grant party! The Doctor ought to have more respect for himself than to be identified with any such concern, and if he has not, I respectfully suggest to him that he ought not to go out his way and attack a personal friend, who has always stood by him, and would to-day, do more to serve him, than any of the pie-bald crew with whom he has unhappily linked his political fortunes.

VINDEX.

The Senatorial Canvas.

Murfresboro, N. C., July 10th, 1872.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

Thinking probably you would like to hear from this part of the district, and especially so when I tell you that we have had one of your distinguish Townsmen with us, Capt C. W. Grandy Jr., who is one of the Republican Candidates for the Senate in this District, I write you a short letter. Allow me here, to congratulate Elizabeth City and the Republican Party for placing as one of the Senatorial Standard barer a man so well fitted and qualified.

It was the first time I ever had the pleasure of Mr. Grandy's acquaintance. It certainly was agreeable and pleasant to have him with us. His good nature, affiable manners, with his high tone and gentlemanly appearance has won for him in this part of the land scores of friends that will not desert him on Election day. Mr. Grandy spoke at three places in this county, Murfersboro St. Johns and Harrelesville. He is acknowledged by all parties as a powerful speaker; more than a match for his competitor, who is considered good. I tell you Mr. Editor he has exposed frauds corruptions villiany and rascality in the Democratic party in a way that the people in this county has never been accustomed to hear. Left no stones unturned. The Republicans of this county are very hopeful. If we had a few more Grandy's we would carry the Election overwhelming. The Democrats are working harder than ever before, so it behoves every Republican to stir every nerve, in conclusion let me say you may safely put H artford county down Republican.

Washington County Convention.

The Republicans of Washington county met in Convention on the 5th inst., for the purpose of nominating county officers and a candidate for the next Legislature. The Convention was called to order by selecting Jas. E. Jackson as Chairman and L. B. Downs Secretary.

A Committee composed of delegates from each township was appointed by the Chair which returned after an absence of a short time and presented the following person as candidates:

House of Representatives— D. C Guyther.
Sheriff—John M. Bateman.
Treasurer—Levi Jackson, Jr.
Register of Deeds—W. F. Sanderson.
Coroner—Samuel Wiggins.
Surveyor—Thomas Bembridge.
Commissioners—James E. Jackson, J. P. Fewberry, George McDaniel, E. H. Leary and J. J. Woodley, all of whom were unanimously endorsed by the Convention.

The following resolutions were then introduced and passed by a unanimous gote:

Resolved 1. That we the Republicans of Washington county in Couvention assembled, heartily endorse the renomination of President Grant, and pledge our hearty co-operation and support.

2, That we endorse the nomination of Gov. Tod R. Caldwell and the entire State ticket, and pledge ourselves to use all honorable means to secure their election.

3. That we endorse the platform and principles of the Republican party as put forth by the last National Republican Convention.

4. That we endorse the platform, principles and plan of organization put forth by the Republican party in the last State Convention.

A Committee of three was then appointed by the Chair to inform Col. D. C. Guyther of his nomination, and wait on him to the stand where he accepted the nomination and spoke for a short time with much force.

Sheriff Bateman then came foward and accepted his nomination in a few words, assuring the people that he would strive to do his full duty as a citizen and also as an officer if elected.

Samuel Wiggins then followed and spoke for nearly an hour, doing good work for Republican principles.

It was moved and carried that the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the NORTH CAROLINIAN and Era, for publication. There being no further business, the Convention then adjourned.

Celebration at Washingtonville, N. C.

On the 4th inst., the colored people of Washingtonville N. C. held a celebration in commemoration of American Independence. R. B. Bennett was called to the chair and H. B. Pettigrew appointed Secretary. After the preliminary ceremonies a patriotic address was delivered by Rev. W. H. Pitts. It was eminently pertinent and appropriate to the occasion. At the close of the meeting resolutions were adopted endorsing the Republican ticket from top to bottom, and especially Grant, Caldwell and Cobb.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisements in this issue.

New York Advertisements.
Bloomington Nursery.

Local and Personal.

☞ Look out for the next issue of the NORTH CAROLINIAN.

☞ We have received and place in proper position the Chowan county ticket this week.

☞ Our Blossom Hill, Va., friend will accept our thanks for his list of new subscribers and the cash.

☞ We republish the Abstract of the Election law on our fourth page and will keep it standing there until the election.

☞ Do not fail to register. It must be attended to before the day of election. The election will be held on the 1st day of August.

☞ Our friend "J. B. F." will accept our thanks for regular copies of Baltimore papers during the sittings of the Baltimore Convention.

☞ Our reporter says that from the odors in some of the Churches this hot weather he is satisfied that some of the "young folks" believe in muskular Christianity.

☞ WILLIS BAGLEY Esq., will speak at Riddicks Store in Perquimans county on Saturday next, and at New Hope on Saturday the 27th. Speaking to commence at 2½ P. M.

☞ Picnic excursions are the order now in many sections. Be careful not to be tempted to over indulgence. We have known these things to send people on an eternal excursion.

☞ A Plymouth correspondent in a letter full of cheering news, says "keep the good ball in motion, you know how to do it." We'll do it. We are in earnest, and we feel confident of victory.

☞ At Cedar Grove on Tuesday we had the pleasure of meeting a large number of old friends and making the acquaintance of many new ones. They all had a good word for the NORTH CAROLINIAN.

☞ We regret that the report of the discussion at Hertford between Maj. YATES and WILLIS BAGLEY Esq. on Monday, reached us too late for this issue. We learn that Mr. BAGLEY's effort was a very able one.

☞ The "Old White Hat" candidate is now flooding the country with his "organ"—the Tribune. It is money expended in vain. Honest men of all parties lose confidence in a man who can make such a sudden somersault for office.

☞ Carelessness and neglect during this season, especially in allowing accumulated garbage and filth about the premises during the heat of the day will aid in producing results so often wrongfully called "mysterious dispensations of Providence." Nature's laws cannot be violated with impunity.

☞ It is said that the word love in the Indian language is "schemlendamourtchwager." How nicely it would sound, whispered softly in a lady's ear —"I schemlendamourtchwager you." Our Devil says it would take a little longer, but he would not begruge the time! He is evidently foud of ladies society.

☞ The County Treasurer informs us that on the 10th inst., JOHN L. WOOD, Sheriff of Pasquotank county, paid over Fourteen thousand and nine dollars and forty one cents, in full for listed and unlisted County taxes for the year ending July 1st 1872. He had previously paid the School taxes amounting to Three Thousand Six hundred and fifty eight dollars and fifty seven cents.

☞ Col. CARTER makes "Cobb's Ku Klux bill" the burthen of most of his speeches, but when here he was very careful not to repeat what he had elsewhere said about the "packed jury" that sent SHOTWELL and others of the guilty Klans to the Albany Penitentiary, for the espied our townsman GEO. W. CHARLES Esq., one of the jury men—in the audience! Discreet CARTER!!

☞ The following is a list of patents issued from the U. S. Patent Office to North Carolina Inventors, for the week ending June 11 1872, and each bearing that date. Furnished that paper by Cox & Cox, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C.

Car-Coupling—Samuel G. Northorpe —Wilmingtin; For the week ending July 2nd 1870. Gin Saw-Sharpener—Jas. McBride—Silesville, Force Pump —Jno. S. Kitched—Fayetteville.

☞ Always put contracts and bargains in writing. How many misunderstandings arise from the loose manner in which business matters are talked up, and when each party puts in his own construction on the conversation, the matter is dismissed by each with "all right," "all right." Frequently it turns out all wrong, and becomes a question for lawyers and courts. More than one-half of the expensive and useless litigation of the country could be saved if people were in the habit of putting their agreements in writing. Each word in our language has its own pecular meaning, and memory. May be the change of its position in a sentence, conveys an entirely differemt idea from that intended. When once reduced to writing, ideas are fixed and inclastic.

☞ We'll pay our respects to Col. CARTER's three worded argument about the "League" in our next issue. Foolish CARTER!

☞ We have rec'd a communication signed "Republican," but as the author's name is withheld we decline publishing it. We have stated our rule so often that we are surprised that correspondents neglect complying with it.

☞ Parties needing tickets must send in their orders immediately. Each order must be accompanied with the cash. Past experience admonishes us to insist on this. The charge for the full ticket for each county—not including Senator and Representative—will be 85.

☞ Col. CARTER, in his recent speech at this place, offended some of his Democratic partisans when he announced that he was in favor of welcoming colored delegates into Democratic Conventions. Of conrse the object was to influence colored votes. But colored men haven't forgotten the old story of the spider and the fly.

☞ The Republican Mass Meeting at Cedar Grove, Perquimans county, on Tuesday, was a grand success. Speeches were made by Hon. J. J. MARTIN, AUGUSTUS M. MOORE Esq. Dr. P. JOHN Hon. C. C. POOL and C. W. GRANDY Esq. It is estimated that there were over 1500 people present.

☞ The galled jades wince. It is legitimate party warfare, aye excellent sport for Democratic editors and speakers to indulge in the vilest abuse against public men of the Republican party: but when they are retorted on and a little of their own medicine is forced down their throats they cry out in holy horror, and threaten prosecutions! Nobody's scared.

☞ A correspondent from Hyde county writes us saying! "I am a Democrat of the straightest sect, but will not vote for CARTER under any circumstances." He says the people of that county have not forgotten CARTER's attempt to tax them to drain his large possessions there. They who know him best don't appear to think him the poor man's friend.

☞ It is contemplated to build two new Light Houses in this District, one near Polygarmels Hill in Dare county, and on about False Cape near Knotts Island. It is also proposed, for the security of the shipping interests, to establish a Life Corps from Cape Hatteras to Cape Henry. These are needed and important enterprizes, and that they will be speedily done by the Government we have no doubt.

☞ The NORTH CAROLINIAN is the organ of the Republican party, not of Pasquotank county alone, but of the First Congressional District. It would be recreant to the party and false to its own teachings if it failed to insist upon every Republican in every county to faithfully "stick to the ticket." The times are momentous, nay perilous, and it behooves all to leave no stone unturned to make success certain and victory sure.

☞ Capt. GRANDY, our Senatorial standard bearer, is making a gallant canvas. He has already met his competitor on the stump all through the counties of Hertford, Gates and Chowan. Reliable correspondents from each informs us that he has made a splendid impression and gained hosts of friends at every point he has visited. See his appointments in the remaining counties.

☞ As an illustration as to how Democratic promises and Democratic practices correspond we call attention to the fact that while in Republican counties the Commissioners have not exceeded the Constitutional limit of $2 taxation on the poll, in such Democratic counties as Camden and Currituck the Commissioners have levied from $3,35 to $4,05 on the poll. Let taxpayers make a note of this.

☞ Col. Carter read a copy of the NORTH CAROLINIAN, referred to by the Economist, on the 5th at Edenton. Since then he has spoken at Centre Hill, Sunsberry, Gatesville, Murfreesboro, Winton Colerain, Windsor and Plymouth.

Will our neighbor inform his readers that the redoutable Colonel has made no allusion, remote or otherwise, to the "League," at either place? Silent CARTER!

☞ Hon, C. C. Pool will speak at Moyoc, Gurrituck, co. on Tuesday July 23 at 11 o'clok A. M. He will speak at Winton on Thursday July 25th; at Gatesville on Friday July 26th: at South Mills on Monday the 29th, and at Old Trappe on Tuesday the 30th. Col. D. M'D. Lindsey will speak at Gatesville and Wintonon the same days, and A. M. MOORE Esq. and WILLIS BAGLEY Esq will be with Judge POOL at South Mills and Old Trap. See posters.

☞ HON. C. L. COBB is conducting his canvas with great ability. We continue to receive very flattering reports of his prospects and success. His competitor is getting sick of the canvass. However much he expected to accomplish at the outset he is now painfully convinced of the fact that his labor will all be lost and that the liberal amount of money the party leaders have drawn from him is going "where the woodbine twineth." Col CARTER will come out of the canvass a sadder if not a wiser man. Disappointed Carter!

☞ Col. CARTER's organ here is getting—desperate. It is another instauce, illustrating the truth of the old adage "whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." Its uncalled for references to and vituperative attacks on our distinguished townsmen Senator POOL and Congressman COBB show its alarming condition. But such assaults fail of their purpose. The people of the District know and are proud of Mr. COBB. They will rebuke his enemies at the ballot box. And as for Mr. POOL, no man has a stronger hold in the affections of the people of the State than he. As in the past, so in the future they will triumphantly vindicate and sustain him.

A PITIFUL CONDITION.—It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two to sink afterward into a more pitible condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the materia of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A STUBORN FACT.—There is scarcely any disease in which purgative medicines are not more or less required, and much suffering might be prevented were they more generally used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides, it soon generates serious diseases which might have been avoided by a timely use of Cathartic Medicines. For this purpose, Dr. Tutt's Vegetable Liver Pills are confidently recommended; they are mild, safe, prompt and uniform in their action. They contain no Mercury. Persons may eat and drink as usual, and they may be taken at any time.

MILLEN, BURKE COUNTY, GA., Oct. 28, 1869.

Dr. WM. TUTT:

Sir—We have been engaged for some time in selling your preparations, and it affords us pleasure to say that every instance they have given perfect srtisfaction. We can more particularly speak of your Sarsaprilla and Queen's Delight, Liver Pills and Pain Alleviator, as being all they are represented to be, having used them in our own families with marked success; and would advise every family to keep a suply on hand, as they may be the means of saving many dollars in doctor's bills, and alleviating much pain and suffering.

Very truly yours,
GRAY & DANIEL.

FLAVORING EXTRACTS are of primary importance in cookery; and of all articles of this description the highly concentrated Standard Extracts, prepared by Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston, are pronounced by leading cuisiniers—Professor Blot among the number—the purest and best.

HUMAN WRECKS—Every day and hour we meet with broken down specimens of humanity—wrecks that seem past hope os salvage. At least seved-eigths of these might be filled with new vitality, by a course of Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters. Many are suffering from the reaction of rum-bolluted bitters or powerful minerals. It is characteristic of Dr. Walkers Great Restorative that it neutralizes the effect of these miscalled remides, and accomplishes, in due time a perfect cure.

NATURE GIVES US TEETH, but she does not preserve and purity them. That must be done with Fragrant Sozodont. The dental bone and its enamel casing are made invulnerable to all destructive influences by the daily use of this benificent preparation.

$50,000 DOLLARS WILL BE PAID for any remedy which will cure Chronic Rheumatism, Palns in the Limbs, Back and Chest, Sore Throat, Insect Stings, Croup, Dysentery, Colic, Sprains and Vomiting, quicker than Dr. Tobias, Venetian Liniment; established in 1847; never fails. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL—Safest and best illuminating Oil ever made. Does not take fire or explode, if the lamp is upset or broken. Over 150,000 families continue to use it, and no accidents of any description have occured from it. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

BEAUTIFUL WHITE, soft smooth, and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sunburns, and all other discolorations from the skin, leavipe the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation s entirely free from any material detriment to health.

JUST THE REMEDY NEEDED.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor, suffering teething children.

FOR DYSPEPSIA. Indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers. FOUTZ'S CELEBRATED Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Colds and How to Treat Them.

When you are again attacked with a hard cold, treat as follows: Eat no supper. On going to bed drink two tumblers of cold water. On rising in the morning drink freely of cold water. For breakfast eat a piece of bread as large as your hand. Go freely out during the morning. For dinner eat about the same as you ate at breakfast. During the afternoon take a sharp walk or engage in some active exercise which shall produce a little perspiration. Go without your supper and retire early, drinking before you jump into bed, as much cold water as you can swallow. The next morning you are nearly well. If, instead, you feed the cold, it will stay a week or ten days; and will wind up with a hard cough, causing free expectoration. A bad cold is not, as many think the result of exposure to a sudden change in the atmosphere. It is the product of two factors: one is a certain condition of the within, and the other is a certain condition of the without. The only soil in which this plant can grow is a certain condition of the system, the prominent feature of which is a deranged stomach. Those who have good digestion very rarely have colds. So, to prevent colds, you must keep yourself in high health. For example, the use of hot drinks, which in addition to flooding and weakening the stomach, open the skin, and increase thereby sensibility to the influences of outward changes. The use of warm baths especially warm foot baths. Sleeping in close, unventilated rooms. Wearing the same flannels during the night that have been worn during the day. Using fat meats and pastry, thereby deranging the stomach and liver.—Dr. Dio Lewis.

Application of Manures.

The effort to work manures in deeply with the idea of fertilizing the subsoil, which was extensively held but a few years ago, is now pretty generally given up by most practial farmers. That idea was, if we mistake not, advanced and maintained by Prof. Liebig and others. Now the most intelligant scientific as well as practical men believe it most for the farmer's interest to keep manures near the surface.

At a recent meeting of the farmers, Club, at London, Prof. Voelcker said, in reply to some statements made by Alderman Mechi, "Don't manure subsoil of any kind, light or heavy; manure the topsoil, and keep the manuring elements as near as you possibly can to the surface, so that the young plants may derive immediate advantages from the food prepared for it." This, as we take it, is the true doctrine very forcibly expressed, and we believe it accords with the experience of the most careful observers both in this country and in England.

This position does not imply that lands should not be deeply ploughed and mellowed, only that manures should not be buried deeply. We like deep ploughing. We like, in turning over the sod, to lay up to the sun and air a sufficient depth of earth and molt to have the after cultivation easy and light without breaking up the turf and sod. But we do not like to turn under the manure too deep, and we think a great deal of manure has been comparatively lost and wasted. If the sod is turned over deeply, there is some satisfaction in manuring and fertitizing the loose and mellow earth that is turned up. This is a practical point of very considerable importance, and is worth careful investigation.—Mass. Ploughman.

Reimplantation of Teeth.

At a recent meeting of the Odontological Society of England, Mr. Steele stated that he lately had a tooth of his own extracted and reinserted under the following circumstances: The tooth had for some time been in an exquisitely sensitive condition from exposure of the pulp, and gave pain on the least change of temperature. Under the influence of nitrous oxide gas, the tooth was carefully pulled out, so as to prevent straining or tearing of the gum; the dental canal was then cleansed, the carious part scraped from the crown, stopping applied in the usual way, and the tooth was replaced in its socket. The operation lasted about half an hour. For three or four hours there was a dull, aching pain, which, however, entirely ceased before noon of the following day, though some tenderness remained. This, in turn, disappeared; and, by the end of a fortnight, the replanted tooth did its duty without any difficulty.

A Novel Medical Patent.

The practice of restoration to bread of the phosphorus which has been removed in the bran, as so successfully accomplished by certain baking-powders now in use, is well known both in this country and Europe. A novel way is now reported of turning the American love of candy to similar benefit by employing phosphorus instead of sulphuric acid in sour drops. Mr. Charles Allen of the school of Mines of Columbia College has invented a phosphated candy, which he prepares by combining one or more of the acids or salts of phosphorus with sugar, thus ingeniously presenting an acceptable form of assimilable phosphorus to those who need some repair of the nervous and brain forces. It is a pleasant way of taking phosphorus as a medicine, and has been deemed worthy of a patent.

Wind Colic In Horses.

The best and cheapest remedy that I have ever known for colic in horses, is to take a bunch of cotton rags, put them into an old tin pan, and set them on fire so that they will smoke but not blaze. Hold it near the horses nose, so he will draw the smoke into his nostrils. Do this for about fifteen minutes; the nose will sweat, the wind pass off, the horse will shake himself, and maybe lie down and roll, and will eat his mess all right. Many who have tried it can testify to this.—Commonwealth.

When first putting a new whetstone into use, try water upon it, and if this keeps the surface from being glazed or burnished, oil will not be needed. Some stones work better with water than oil. A dry stone is very apt to give a wire edge. It has been said that a little carbolic acid added to water will increase the friction of either a whetstone or a grindstone.

Nature is the only workman to whom no material is worthless, the only chemist in whose laboratory there are no waste products, and the only artest whose compositions are infinitely varied, and whose fertility of invention is inexhaustible.

A gentleman was introduced to a young lady, recently and address her as follows: "Where do you live when you are at home?" to which she promptly replied, "When I am at home I live there."

In reply to the question why George Washington's sister was not with him when he made his famous raid on the cherry tree, some one says, because she had not got her little hat yet!

Fretting never greased a wagon or made the wheels of life run easy.

SOUTHERN CLAIMS

AGAINST

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

Loyal citizens of North Carolina and other Southern States will be pleased to learn that Congress at the last session passed a law for a commission to be appointed to examine and report on all claims that may be presented to them for Quartermaster and Commissary stores furnished the Federal Army during the late war.

The undersigned are prepared to furnish blank, and give all information to those having claims—and to prosecutel the same to final settlement. Having received the endorsement for ability, &c., from the Hon. Senators Messrs. Pool and Abbott and the Representatives from North Carolina—we bleieve that we can give satisfaction to all who entrust their claims to us.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalisis and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where: and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2.000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3.000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3.000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15.000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $8,500, $7.00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next, balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A Farm of 200 acres within one mile of Elizabeth City, with good two story dwelling, large barn and stables, and all necessary outhouses, orchard of fine fruit trees, and a large number of ornamental trees and shrubbery around dwelling. This farm is on one of the most public roads in the County—is in a high state of cultivation—has fine and durable fences, &c. Altogether, it is the richest land and most desirable location, anywhere in the neighborhood of the town. Price $6000—one-half cash, balance in easy payments.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the System from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

Abstract of Election Law.

We publish below an abstract of the new election law. As this law is very important, we will keep this article standing a few weeks in our columns.

The following are the only qualifications required of any voter in the State:

He must be a male person twenty-one years of age or upwards; a native or naturalized citizen of the United States; and must have resided in this State twelve months next preceeding the election and thirty days in the County in which he offers to vote. Any person possessing the qualifications is entitled to register and vote in the township in which he lives.

An election shall be held on the first Thursday in August, which is the 1st day of the month, for the following officers, viz:

1st. Governor; 2d. Lieut. Governor; 3rd. Secretary of State; 4th. Auditor; 5th. Treasurer; 6th. Superintendent of Public Instruction; 7th. Superintendent of Public Works; 8th. Attorney General; 9th. members of Congress in the several districts; 10th. members of the General Assembly in the several counties and districts; 11th. For each county, a Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, five Commissioners, Coroner and Sheriff.

County Commissioners may establish, alter, discontinue or create such separate places of election in their Counties as they may deem expedient. Thirty days notice of any change must be made either by publication in some paper or by handbill posted in three places in the County. There shall be at least one polling place in every township as nearly central as possible, and in every city containing more than 3000 inhabitants, there shall be a polling place in each ward.

The Commissioners of each County shall, on or before the 1st Monday in July, 1872, select one Justice of the Peace of each township or election precinct to act as Registrar therein. Where there are not enough Justices, the Commissioners shall appoint some person to act as Registrar.

The names of the persons selected shall be published at the Court House door.

The Register so appointed shall revise the existing registration books of their precinct or township, so the books shall show an accurate list of voters previously registered in such precinct or township and still residing therein—Such voters shall not be required to register again. The Registrars shall, between sunrise and sunset on each day, (1st day of July, 1872, to the 1st day in August, 1872, keep open the books for the registration of any voters residing in the township or precinct, entitled to register, whose names have not been registered in such township or precinct before, or do not appear in the revised list. No voter can register or vote in any other precinct or township than the one in which he is an actual and bona fide resident on the day of election and no certificates of registration shall be given.

The Judges and Registrars shall, on the Saturday preceeding the election, from nine o'clock A. M., attend at the polling place of their township or precinct, with the registration books, when and where the said books shall be open to the inspection of the electors of the township or precinct, and any elector shall be allowed to object to any name appearing on the said books. Where there is an objection the Registrar shall enter opposite the name so objected to the word "challenged," and shall appoint a time and place, on or before election day, when he, together with the judges of election, shall hear and decide upon such objection. Due notice of the time and place and hearing shall be given the person objected to.

The name of electors appearing on the registration books may also be challenged at any other time and on the day of election. If any person challenged shall be found not duly qualified his name shall be erased from the registration book.

The County Commissioners on or before the 1st Monday in July shall appoint four judges of election, two of whom shall be of a different political party from the Registrar, for each polling place who shall with the Registrar, conduct the election—they shall keep poll-books in which they shall enter the name of every person voting, &c.

Every person applying for registration shall take the following oath:

"I,——, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith—that I have been a resident in the State of North Carolina for twelve months, and in the county of——for thirty days, and that I have not registered for this election in any other precinct, and that I am an actual and bona fide resident of——Township—so help me God.

No person shall register on the day of election, unless by satisfactory evidence he can show that he has become twenty-one years of age on that day, or for other reasons has become entitled to register.

The polls shall be open on the day of election from 9 o'clock in the morning until sun-set.

There shall be four ballot boxes at each polling place.

Candidates will be voted for as follows:

Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Superintendent of Public Works and Attorney General shall be on one ballot, and deposited in a seperate box. Member of Congress shall be on one ballot and deposited in a separate box. Members of the General Assembly shall be on one ballot and deposit in a separate box. County officers shall be on one ballot and deposited in a separate box.

The tickets shall be on white paper and either written or printed, or both, and must be without device.

If two or more tickets be rolled up together, or if any ticket shall contain more names than the elector has a right to vote for, or shall have a device upon it; in either of these cases such ticket shall be thrown out and not counted.

Any Registrar or Judge of Election, or any officer failing to perform any duty required of him by the Election Act, shall on conviction be fined not more than one thousand dollars nor less than five hundred, and imprisoned not more than six nor less than two months.

Any person who shall falsely and corruptly take the oath prescribed for voters, shall be deemed guilty of perjury and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.
